

Dublin May 17. 1862. Thank your daughter for her nice little letter which warmed my heart.
Certainly under favorable circumstances I would be very tolerable company - and I think that such a one as she is would make great head a circumstance. With you wish them to stop Richard Allen Liberator which was very lately ordered for his wife she is a nice woman and a remarkably papericious rich woman.
I never saw any one such a thing as to find fault with your servant. You are the friend of all that is right & I say it I think it.

I am sure the post generally has with the Standard office. Whenever I have a few subscribers it takes a long time to get the papers. There was probably a mistake of some one about Miss Briggs in sending the order to some irregular person in U. S. A. It shd have gone direct to you or to the office.

I greatly enjoyed Muller's & Keane's letters. He is true blue - nobody that I know of here thinks the more of him. We must have patience with one another. I am sure I am not in the least cooled by my regards to any of my American friends for any thing that has come or gone. My admiration & respect for America & republican institutions has partly increased - & so has my abhorrence of the Times & Lib. Review & our proslavery men Generally - which is generally in the King interest & as respects to Hungary, the Italy but it is to the United States. I am content.

Always take care about your son Edward.
I would repeat being very happy to hear as if he was my own dear relation. I hear from H.C. Wright that he comes to England in June the world takes every thing of my message that you may have to send to me. I am ever
Your ever
Richd Webb

Would you do a line for me to Mrs Marianne Spring to say that if she could to send the portrait of Stevens & Haight the copies to be sent forward, to the care of H.C. Wright - they would come safe. Mrs Chapman also promised me to send of Mrs F. Mearns. Could you manage these delicate commissions? I think I feel ashamed to trouble you with such trifles. I am ever Your ever
Richd Webb
